The 'Istituto Comprensivo Senigallia Nord-Mercantini' is made up of nine different schools: four Infant Schools, four Primary Schools and one Secondary School.

Four of these schools - "G. Puccini" Primary School, "L. Mercantini" Secondary School, Cesanella and Cesano Primary Schools - take part to the Comenius project 'Learning English through Drama ,Songs and Game Activities'.

The Istitute has about 1,300 students and it is run by the headteacher: Ms Fulvia Principi.

Most of the nine schools are set in Senigallia which is a famous seaside resort by the Adriatic Sea. During spring and summer Senigallia hosts a lot of tourists who spend their holidays visiting its important historical monuments and its beautiful golden sandy beach that is called//known as ‘the velvet beach ‘.Senigallia has good hotels and restaurants ,cinemas, museums, shops and shopping centres and a nice port.

Italy is divided into 20 regions. Senigallia is in the Marche region whose main city is Ancona which has an international airport and a very important port. Not far from Senigallia there is a UNESCO site: Urbino, a town that goes back to the renaissance period and that has a famous university.

Italy is a country known all over the world for its good food, fashion, history, music and above all art.
